Excerpt: .Book is come abroad, I cannot hear (and many observe the Like) of so much as one ver tuous and sensible Man, but let their Opinions about the Salem Troubles be what they will, they detest it, as, a Vile Book; as being an intire Libel upon the whole Government and Ministry in the Land; yea, they think it beneath a Minister of the Gospel to bestow the Pains of an Answer upon it. The Book serves but as an Engine to discover (by their approbation of it) a sew Persons in the Land that will distinguish themselves by an exalted Malignity. Some Few Remarks on a Scandalous Book, i$-$. This as I said, I took to be most material in the four sheets sent to me as his belief, and is also all the performance he has yet made of his several promises;...
