But they are breathing the air of America, and ever and anon the newspaper world announces, Beet Workers Have Struck. Demanding More Wages. Never less hours, -always more money. In-fact, --many have learned to strike in the middle of the day, and appear, a solid army, which calmly marches away if demands are not heeded. Dedicated four churches. Only three words for the record that is seen. What of the unseen? At the first one we caught the enthusiasm of the co-operation of the frontier. A church in North Dakota sent over its choir in an automobile--a distance quite staggering even to hear about. Another church many, many miles down the line expressed its pulpit (prepaid) for the day. Someone had carefully painted all the lard pails a deep, dark red, and they served as jardinieres for the ferns, geraniums, and potted plants that were brought from the surrounding homes. Three rugs covered the platform; but best of all was the audience--healthy, enthusiastic young people, representing several colleges and scientific agricultural schools and so many different states that one unconsciously began to review some old geography lesson. The second dedication was thirty miles across country, accessible by READY TO TURN THE SOD IN MONTANA THE STEAM PLOW DEVELOPS THE LAND AS TMK CHURCH DEVELOPS CHARACTER dedicate a church. Women with tiny children sat two hours and a half on planks of wood balanced on kegs, and then...
