Besides the work on his own paper, he has been a contributor to the columns of the New York Ilvrald, Philadelphia Times, and other city papers.l.r. Haines success is due in part to a graceful and easy style of writing, to the force and precision with which he clothes his productions. and also largely to the persistent labor and close application to which he was trained in his youth by his devout and devoted parents. and which he early recognized as essential to life s success. He still maintains the industrious habits of his earlier years, and is ever faithful and diligent in the duties that lie before him, impressing upon others about him, by his example, the wisdom of the same inestimable qualities. Mr. Haines was married, May 25, 1875, to Mrs. Dr. James Low, nee Margaret Eager Millspaugh, of Montgomery, N. Y., who died in 1887. The home life of this couple was a model of kindly hospitality. Mrs. Haines was a natural and skillful homemaker, building upon the foundation of economy and system the graces which experience, affection and appreciation naturally develop. Mr. Haines published, in 1900, a book entitled Illustrated Wayne County, which contains between six and seven hundred handsome engravings. It is historical, industrial, biographical and also descriptive of the many and varied attractions...
