Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Tiptonian: 1914 In the fall of 1910, a Freshman class, consisting of almost eighty good looking, industrious students entered the Tipton High School. For various reasons, this number was greatly diminished and about forty of us continued the Sophomore work. Here we were noted for our brilliant debates and for our ponyless Latin students. But the number still decreased and only thirty-five responded to the roll call. These thirty-five managed to give the best Junior reception that Tipton has ever witnessed. We originated the Junior-Senior Get-Together movement, which is a fine scheme for connecting more closely the members of the two upper classes, and which will undoubtedly be continued in the future. In our last year of high school, we broke all previous records concerning senior class plays, both financially and as a perfect production. We are the first to divine the idea of publishing a monthly Tiptonian instead of an annual and are greatly pleased with its success. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
