Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Forty-Third Annual Meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association, 1910 We have reached another mile post in the history of the Maryland State Teachers Association. A retrospect may not be encouraging, if we consider numbers as the only element of growth. It does appear that the Association is not as large, numerically, as it was a year ago; but let us hope that, in all the other essential elements of growth, there has been steady advancement. The only two places which are considered resorts, where there are abundant hotel facilities - Mountain Lake Park and Ocean City - are located in remote corners of the State. The mountain resort is in Garrett County, about three thousand feet above sea level, and it makes a long and somewhat expensive trip for the great majority who attend; Ocean City, in Worcester County, is Maryland s most famous resort; and it, too, is difficult to reach. Last year at Mountain Lake, the enrollment of members was unprecedented, and the question of defraying the expenses of the meeting was an easy problem to solve. It is a matter worthy of note that Garrett County, in whose territory the Mountain Lake Park meeting was held, furnished more than one hundred of the members at that meeting. Worcester County did not do so well at Ocean City the present year, and we must all feel more or less disappointment, when we see an enrollment of about four hundred at the last meeting of the Association. Inasmuch as benefits of a substantial character result to any town or county where the Association meets, would it not be well for the Executive Committee...
