Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Community Plan in Children s Work: A Report Presented at the National Conference of Charities and Correction Baltimore, Maryland, May 16, 1915 The address printed in this pamphlet is one of the 116 delivered at the 47 different sessions of the Forty-Second National Conference of Charities and Correction, which was held at Baltimore for a week in May, 1915. This Conference is an outgrowth of the Social Science Association, and was originally a gathering of the few members of state boards of charities which were in existence in the 70 s. Its membership now represents every variety of social service activity, voluntary and governmental, and every shade of religious and social opinion. Anyone interested in its objects is eligible for membership, and all members are entitled to its Bulletins and volumes of Proceedings. Many of the social reforms now well established in America were first advocated at this Conference, which exists to discuss social problems and disseminate information with regard to them but does not formulate platforms. The sessions of 1916 will be held at Indianapolis. Annual membership for those who join in 1915, $2.50; after January 1, 1916, $3.00; sustaining membership, $10.00. Address for further information about publications, membership, program of the next Conference, etc. Wm. T. Cross, General Secretary, 315 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill. Foreword In response to a general desire to obtain copies as early as possible the Russell Sage Foundation has decided to print three remarkable papers read at the National Conference of Charities and Correction in Baltimore; one by Mr. C.C. Carstens of Boston on A Community Plan in Children s Work, one by Mr. J. Prentice Murphy of...
